AMERICAN WRITERS BEFORE 1800: A Biographical and Critical Reference Guide, 3 Volumes

Edited by James A. Levernier & Douglas R. Wimes.
1982. 1,764pp. $195.00

"... contains sketches of 786 writers by some 250 scholars. It is a massive and important reference work. The entry for each author is divided into four sections: 'Works,' 'Biography,' 'Critical Appraisal,' and 'Suggested Readings.' Besides the sketches, four appendices give the year of birth, the place of birth, the principle place of residence for each author, and a literary and historical chronology from 1492 to 1800. . . . Levernier and Wimes is an extraordinarily useful companion to studies in early American literature."

Susan D. Becker

Both of University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Volume I: To 1877 • 212 pages

Volume II: Since 1865 • 326 pages

Paper • Instructor's Manual • Now available Wheeler and Becker's supplement for the American history survey course actively involves students in the analysis of historical evidence.

Each volume presents ten or eleven historical issues in a class-tested format:
background introduction, explanation of the analytical method, the actual evidence, questions that help students form conclusions, and an epilogue that summarizes ensuing events. Topics included represent all kinds of history: political, social, diplomatic, economic, and military.

A key feature is the extraordinary variety of evidence—eyewitness accounts, architectural drawings, Senate debates, advertisements, cartoons, oral history, music lyrics, and much more.

from your regional Houghton Mifflin office.
