

JOURNAL OF THE EARLY REPUBLIC

Established in 1981 by the Society for Historians of the Early American Republic, the Journal of the Early Republic is a quarterly magazine devoted to fostering scholarly exchange and promoting the study of the early national period of the United States.

Articles in the Journal relate to all aspects of the history and culture of the United States—economic and political, diplomatic and military, legal and social, including aspects of cultural, ethnic, religious, and gender history. Other features include book reviews and notices, and listings of recent articles and dissertations related to history during the early republic.

Annual individual subscriptions, which also include a membership in SHEAR, are $20 for income under $30,000; $25 for income between $30,000 and $40,000; and $30 for income over $40,000. Institutional subscriptions are $40. A student subscription is available for $15. All subscriptions for locations outside of the United States must include an additional $4 for postage.
